General notes

If no personnel are present on the stand when delivery is made, the services shall be considered to have been duly provided upon fulfilment of the services or delivery of the hired equipment to the stand.

The service provider/lessor is not required to check the authority of the personnel encountered on the stand when the services are provided or when hired goods are delivered.

Any complaints regarding the fulfilment of the services ordered should be made to Messe Berlin on the same day, in writing. Complaints made at a later date will be excluded. An obligation exists to rectify justifiable complaints. Cancellation of the contract or a reduction in the remuneration are only possible if the rectification of the complaint is unsuccessful.
