

The Berliner Spielbank in cooperation with unclesally*s Magazin presents

The 1st Popkomm Poker Tournament 2008

Leaving its image of a game played in murky back rooms of dubious localities behind poker is in vogue again. The game is becoming increasingly popular within in the music business and not because of the need to boost lost income due to decreasing record sales but the intellectual challenge that poker provides for creative thinkers. There is good knowledge of the game within the branch and the standard is very high.

Thus GUTSHOT Berlin Poker and the SPIELBANK Berlin casino present in cooperation with unclesally*s Magazin a very special event to round-off Popkomm: The first music business “No Limit Texas Hold`Em Tournament”.

Artists, producers, label bosses and anyone else affiliated to the music business have the opportunity on Sunday 12th October 2008 to show their talents in a professional environment and perfect poker ambient at the casino’s theatre.

The “buy-in” for this event is 50 euro per person. In addition the last starting places can be played for at the exhibition as well as at the after-show area of the sally*sounds festival in satellite tournaments.

The casino opens at 2.30pm and the event starts at 3pm and is estimated to last approximately 8 hours.

Parallel to the tournament there is the possibility for guests to learn the basics and subtleties of poker free of charge at special beginners’ tables. Furthermore guests also have the opportunity to use all of the other extensive facilities that the Spielbank Berlin has to offer.

“We are very pleased that we can make a top poker event as well as a forum for communication available for the music business to reflect on a successful Popkomm week in a relaxed atmosphere” comments Spielbank Berlin Director Steffan Stumpf.

Other partners of the event are the Berlin eyewear designers IC! Berlin that are sponsoring high quality prizes which can be played for alongside cash prizes provided by Spielbank Berlin.
